For more than 50 years, the American Civil Liberties Union of Oklahoma has worked in the courts, the legislature, and through public education to protect individuals' civil rights and liberties. As part of our organization's nationwide effort to cut the nation's prison population in half while combating racial disparities in the criminal justice system, the ACLU of Oklahoma is launching a public education campaign around prosecutorial discretion.

Our goal is to educate voters, including members of the ACLU of Oklahoma and those directly impacted by incarceration, about the role the district attorneys play in mass incarceration. Our campaign will also work to provide voters with information about where candidates for District Attorney stand on critical criminal justice reform issues, such as prosecutorial transparency, policies that reduce incarceration, eliminating racial disparities in the criminal justice system system, and ending unjust policies such as the death penalty, money bail, and civil asset forfeiture.

All candidates for District Attorney in Oklahoma are receiving the attached questionnaire, and answers will be posted online.

Through this campaign, the ACLU of Oklahoma is working to make Oklahoma voters more aware of the awesome powers that District Attorneys have and hold candidates for this powerful position accountable to their communities' fundamental need for justice, safety, and respect.

Please write your answers in this document and email your response to Nicole McAfee at NMcafee@acluok.org as soon as possible.
