Q9 In your opinion, how important is it to reduce the number of Oklahomans who are currently in prison: very important, somewhat important, not very important, or not important at all?

Very important	29%
Somewhat important	31%
Not very important	21%
Not important at all	13%
Not sure	6%

Q10 Which of the following would do more to prevent people convicted of crimes from committing further offenses once they're released from prison: making prison sentences longer and as hard and unpleasant as possible so they are afraid of going back, or, providing alternatives to incarceration, rehabilitation services and training so they can re-enter society and be productive citizens?

Making prison sentences longer and as hard and unpleasant as possible	22%
Providing alternatives to incarceration, rehabilitation services and training	66%
Not Sure	12%

Q11 If you knew that making reforms that reduce the prison population would mean sending some people convicted of crimes to rehabilitation programs to help them cope with mental illness or addictions instead of sending them to prisons, do you think it would harm communities because people who belong behind bars will be let out, or, help communities by rehabilitating offenders and saving taxpayer dollars that can be reinvested into preventing crime?

Think it would harm communities because people who belong behind bars will be let out	24%
Think it would help communities by rehabilitating offenders and saving taxpayer dollars that can be reinvested into preventing crime	60%
Not sure	16%

Q12 Now I'm going to ask you some questions about the role of prosecutors in Oklahoma's criminal justice system. In Oklahoma, the lead prosecutor in each county is called the District Attorney or DA. How much would you say you know about your District Attorney's responsibilities: a lot, some, only a little, or nothing at all?

A lot	20%
Some	55%
Only a little	19%
Nothing at all	6%
Not sure	0%

Q13 Your District Attorney has a number of different responsibilities. A District Attorney decides whether or not to charge someone with a crime, which crimes to prosecute; and who gets a second chance through diversion or treatment programs. Your District Attorney also influences state and local criminal laws; that includes lobbying the state legislature to expand alternatives to incarceration or adopt tougher criminal laws. Knowing these things, how important would you say is the role your District Attorney plays in your community: very important, somewhat important, not very important, or not important at all?

Very important	72%
Somewhat important	22%
Not very important	4%
Not important at all	1%
Not sure	2%

Q14 Which do you think is a better way for your District Attorney to prevent future crimes: sending fewer people to prison and sending more people to mental health treatment, drug treatment, and other rehabilitative programs, or, seeking the harshest prison sentences possible to keep offenders off the streets and deter other people from committing crimes?

- Think my District Attorney should be sending fewer people to prison and sending more people to mental health treatment, drug treatment, and other rehabilitative programs ..* 60%
- Think my District Attorney should be seeking the harshest prison sentences possible to keep offenders off the streets and deter other people from committing crimes ..* 24%
- Not sure ..* 16%

Q15 Which do you think is a better way for your District Attorney to protect public safety: to aggressively prosecute people who have committed serious crimes because they are unlikely to change and will almost always be a danger to society, OR to give people who have committed serious crimes the possibility of turning things around and living productive and responsible lives.

- Think my District Attorney should aggressively prosecute people who have committed serious crimes because they are unlikely to change and will almost always be a danger to society ..* 62%
- Think my District Attorney should give people who have committed serious crimes the possibility of turning things around and living productive and responsible lives ..* 27%
- Not sure ..* 11%
